

INDIANA UNIVERSITY BLOOMINGTON

21ST CENTURY SCHOLARS PROGRAM

DIVERSITY, EQUITY & MULTICULTURAL AFFAIRS

March 6, 2020

Hello Scholars,

We were happy to greet the prospective incoming students last Friday and this past Monday for Red Carpet Scholar Days. If you took the opportunity, thank you for sharing a smile with them as they visited the campus!

New students value the opinion of current and newly graduated students so we really appreciate being able to include the student panel in our program. You too can be involved in events like this by joining Leadership Corps Ambassador Division or emailing us your interest at iub21cs@iu.edu.

Derrick Robinson hosted the Black Male Initiative event on Monday—Moe's provided a generous portion of food for all those in attendance! (see what you missed in the photo further down on the right) On Wednesday, IU representative Tanaisha Brisbon shared information about INROADS and the benefits of applying for the INROADS internship program and the process for selection, along with the wrap around services that students who are selected will have access to.

Leadership Corps Volunteer Division had a busy week starting with helping out at the “Seusspicious activities” event at the library this past weekend followed by a study social and general membership meeting highlighted with a discussion surrounding mental health and wellness. Marissa, our Leadership Specialist (who also teaches yoga) was there to help with a little stress relieving yoga activity. You can beInvolved by joining Leadership Corps at any time during the academic year.

If you haven't started on your FAFSA we have several help sessions planned and Nikki is here to help you. Also as you prepare for midterms especially please be reminded as a 21st Century Scholar you have access to free tutoring in our building. (We have added new hours for calculus this week.)

There are still a few Study Abroad info sessions and deadlines coming up. Don't delay, if you have any interest in study abroad during your time at IU, you should attend one of these events.

Remember, we are here for you. If you need help or have questions--feel free to contact us anytime at iub21cs@iu.edu or call the office at (812) 856-1910.

All scholars are welcome to take advantage of our study tables, (where water and healthy snacks are always available while you study) computer labs, and lounge. The area is open 8 A.M to 7:00 PM Monday through Thursday and Friday from 8:00 to 5:00 PM. Study Tables are located in room #120.

If you know of other scholars who are not receiving our newsletter please tell them to email us (iub21cs@iu.edu) so as not to miss important information from our office. We have our past newsletters archived on our website here.

Our social media pages (Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram) are also active with notifications and reminders of recent events so please make sure and follow our pages.

Scroll down for many other events, important things for you to know, and career opportunities. Make sure and visit the events page on our website on a regular basis as well so you don't miss anything!

You have already made it through 8 weeks of the semester --you are halfway there and Spring Break will be here in one short week!

Vincent Isom, Director of the IUB 21st Century Scholars Program

Tutoring on campus

Need help? There are many opportunities for free course tutoring here in our office and around the IU campus. Please visit the page on our website here and also the Academic Support Center website for more details. Working with a tutor is a great way to study—you don't have to need help to consult with a tutor. You can talk about your work, ask to explain the homework to the tutor in order to review the material and make sure you clearly understand. This is a free service at IU and a good opportunity to connect with students dedicated to one subject matter at IU.

Holistic Wellness and Resiliency for Scholars

Scholars, we are here to support and encourage you in your journey at IU. It's not always easy and requires some personal grit to finish the race. If you are experiencing depression, anxiety or need someone to talk to, there are resources here on campus for you!

It doesn't matter whether you're having a serious mental health crisis or you just want to discuss a problem with someone— the CAPS (Counseling and Psychological Services) staff is here for you. There are also peer groups available if that is something that might interest you. If you're experiencing a financial hardship, please speak with your counselor about financial assistance. Don't let low funds stop you from seeking help

We have CAPS counselors in our building at 300 N Jordan Ave. (as well as at the main location in the Student Health Center at 600 N. Jordan) on Tuesdays from 1:00 PM-3:30 PM and on Wednesdays from 1:30PM to 4:30PM. Call 812-855-5711 to make an appointment.

About Us

The IU 21st Century Scholars Program (iub21cs), administered by the IU Office of the Vice President for Diversity, Equity, and Multicultural Affairs (OVPDEMA), has been a proud partner of the Indiana University Bloomington (IUB) campus since its inception in 1990, offering financial and academic resources to support, retain, and graduate thousands of IU 21st Century Scholars. As an IU 21st Century Scholar, students have access to the academic guidance, mentoring, and advocacy support they need to achieve their full potential at IUB. The mission of the IU 21st Century Scholars Program is to provide quality service in the form of advocacy and holistic programming designed to promote academic achievement, career development, retention, scholarship maintenance, timely graduation, and understanding their role in making a positive impact on the IUB community and beyond. IU Bloomington boasts the highest 21st Century Scholars four-year graduation rate in the state of Indiana. For more info, please visit <http://21centuryscholars.indiana.edu>
